

PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT SECTION 51 MANUAL OF Marques Chiropractic Health and Wellness Centre

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) ("the Act"). The Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution, which provides for the right of access to information held by the State and/or held by a private person or entity where such information is required to protect rights.

OVERVIEW

Marques Chiropractic Health and Wellness Centre is a practice in the field of Chiropractic registered with the AHPCSA. We specialise in Chiropractic Care. We work in the health sector and are healthcare professionals registered under the Allied Health Professions of South Africa (AHPCSA), and are subject to the rules and regulations of the Allied Health Professions of South Africa (AHPCSA).

This manual serves to inform members of the public of the categories of information we hold, and which may, subject to the grounds of refusal listed in the Act, be disclosed after evaluation of an access application being made in terms of the Act.

HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY: MARQUES CHIROPRACTIC HEALTH AND WELLNESS CENTRE

Requests for access to records held by Marques Chiropractic Health and Wellness Centre must be made on the request form that are attached to this Manual or available from our rooms, or from:

https://www.justice.gov.za/forms/paia/J752_paia_Form%20C.pdf, attached as Annexure A, ("Request Form").

When a record is requested, the following will apply:

- Fees may be payable as prescribed by law.
- The Request Form must be completed by the Requester. On the Request Form all details must be completed, including the right the requester wants to protect by requesting the information and WHY access to the information is required.
- If the requester is acting on behalf of someone else, the signature of the other person as the one who has authorised the request must be provided. In order to verify this, the practice may require further proof such as an identify document or may call the person whose information it is to verify that s/he has given permission for the other person to access the information on his/her behalf.
- The requester must state in which format (inspection of copy, paper copy, electronic copy, transcript, etc) s/he wants to access the information.

- If the record is part of another record, the requester will only be able to access the part(s) that pertains to the information s/he wants or is entitled to, and not the rest of the record.

All requests will be evaluated against the provisions of the Act. The Information Officer to refuse access on grounds stipulated in the Act. One can, for example, not access another person's confidential information, or trade- or commercial secrets of a business. An answer on a request for information must be provided within 30 days of the request, and if not granted and the requester is not satisfied, s/he can approach the courts within 30 days.

HOW THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT WORKS

The Act provides that a requester may be provided access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the interest of the public.

Requests under the Act must be made in terms of the procedures prescribed by the Act, at the rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with under section 53 and 54 of the Act.

More information on how the Act works and all other information including the Section 10 Guide can be obtained from the South African Human Rights Commission at:
